

Challenges of Politics and Democracy in a Digital Era

Palacio de Minería, April 4-5, 2019

Dania Ravel

She is an Electoral Councilor at INE since 2016. She holds a bachelors degree in Law by the Universidad la Salle, and a masters in Human Rights by the Autonomous University of Ciudad Juárez, in coordination with the National Commission for Human Rights. She was an Electoral Councilor of the Electoral Institute of Mexico City (2014-2017), Head of the consultant area at ISSSTE's Legal Department (2013-2014), advisor to the General Council at the Federal Electoral Institute (2008-2013), where she was also Technical Secretary to the Complaints Commission (2010-2011), and was an advisor at Mexico City's Institute for Transparency, Access to Public Information, Protection of Personal Data and Accountability (2005-2008).

Technology
Forum
Democracy
Digital
Transparency
Institutions
Integrity
Politics
Citizenship
Vote
Campaign
Elections

#9ForoDemocracia

